

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tony Award-Winning Play “Art” Comes to Cape May Stage

Called “...funny, engaging, and devilishly efficient” by The Washington Post, this play has received the Tony Award for Best Play, the Drama Desk Award for Outstanding New Play, and the Laurence Olivier Award for Best Comedy.

The award-winning play “Art” opens at Cape May Stage on July 20th and runs through August 27th, with shows Wednesday through Sunday nights at 8 pm. Written by internationally acclaimed playwright Yasmina Reza and directed by Roy Steinberg, this comedic show is set in Paris and focuses on the meaning of art and friendship in a battle of wits and words.

Featuring actors Chris Dolman, Scott Greer, and Timothy Stickney, “Art” follows the lives of three close friends: Serge, Marc, and Yvan. When Serge acquires an expensive painting, it ignites a heated debate about the piece's artistic worth, disrupting the harmony of their long-standing friendships. As tensions rise and hidden conflicts emerge, the play delves into deeper themes of personal identity, loyalty, and the intricate dynamics of human relationships.

"Art" has enjoyed tremendous success worldwide, receiving numerous accolades, including the prestigious Tony Award for Best Play. Reza's witty and thought-provoking script has captivated audiences globally, and this production promises to be no exception. "We are thrilled to bring 'Art' to Cape May Stage," says Roy Steinberg, "This play is a true gem of contemporary theater, exploring themes that deeply resonate with audiences."

Tickets for "Art" are now available for purchase online at www.capemaystage.org/art or by calling the box office at 609-770-8311.
