Inspirational and Comedic Play “The Garbologists” Comes to Cape May Stage

Called “A Must See!” by BroadwayWorld.com and “delightfully intimate, surprising, and profound” by onStage, this new play has received rave reviews since its world-premiere in 2022.

The unconventional buddy comedy play follows two sanitation workers in the cab of a New York City garbage truck. Tasked with picking up what the world has discarded, they learn there’s more that binds them than just picking up the trash. Written by Lindsay Joelle and directed by Roy Steinberg, this thought-provoking play takes center stage at Cape May Stage from September 13 to October 22 with performances Wednesday through Saturday nights at 7 pm, and Sunday at 3 pm.

Featuring professional Equity actors Michael Basile as Danny and Serena Ebony Miller as Marlowe, “The Garbologists” is titled for the archeological study of garbage, and its trash collecting characters deliver a wonderful mix of laughter, tears, and insight into human nature.

“The Garbologists is the perfect play to include in our 2023 season showcasing stories that focus on how important people are in our lives,” says Roy Steinberg, Cape May Stage’s Producing Artistic Director. “It is funny, poignant and celebrates how we can all learn to live with each other no matter our differences, be that in education, race, gender or even trivial things like food preferences!”

Tickets for “The Garbologists” are now available for purchase online at <https://capemaystage.org/garbologists> or by calling the box office at 609-770-8311.
